

March 2017

Sun Mon Tue Wed Thu Fri Sat

			1 Start peppers from seed	2 Spread manure and/or compost on garden when ground is frozen	3 Watch for Eastern bluebird return	4 SEMINAR: Not Your Grandma's Daylilies 11:00 AM
5 Take a soil test in your lawn and/or garden	6 Order locally grown bare root fruit trees from Dayton's	7 Over-seed your lawn when ground is frozen without snow	8 Apply dormant oil to trees & shrubs when above freezing for 24 hours	9 Trim back Heathers (Calluna) to shape	10 Rake out any evidence of snow mold on your lawn	11 SEMINAR: What's New for 2017 11:00 AM
12 Daylight Savings Time Begins	13	14 Transplant trees & shrubs now except for Dogwood, Magnolia & fragrant Viburnum	15 Apply lime to lawn or garden if necessary	16 Cut out all dead wood from roses and trim to shape	17 Remove straw from strawberries St. Patrick's Day	18 Start Dahlia & Begonia tubers and Cannas indoors for planting in May
19	20 Spring Equinox	21 Cut all dead wood out of roses and trim to shape	22 Trim back type "C" Clematis to ground	23 Remove tree guards and wind screens	24 Check out Dayton's weekly blogs for more gardening info	25 Plant onion sets, peas, lettuce & seed potatoes
26 Plant bare-root conifers, trees, shrubs & fruits if weather allows	27	28 Fertilize blueberries with Holly-tone	29 Cut back ornamental grasses and dead tops of perennials such as Mums	30 Fertilize small fruits, raspberries, blackberries & strawberries	31 Plant pansies & violas for cool weather flowers	